

Bradley Gray

Bradley Gray has been working in the Insurance industry for over 20 years. This has given him the unique insights and the detailed understanding of insurance needs of an extensive range of SME and personal client base he has built over this time. The extensive industry experience in both insurance and running his own family insurance brokering business provides his clientele with market leading protection advice.

Bradley ran his family business VFP Insurance Brokers for a good part of the 20 years in the industry and recently successfully transitioning this into the South Australian Steadfast Brecknock hub. This now gives his clients the cutting edge access to industry experts and premium insurance policies.

Steadfast Brecknock Insurance Brokers established in 1969 has evolved into a dynamic Insurance broking firm located in Adelaide, South Australia with the capabilities to do business nationally. Clientele range from family owned businesses to large corporations. With access to all major Australian and London-based insurers Steadfast Brecknock Insurance Brokers have the leverage to deliver specifically targeted insurance and other financial solutions to protect both professional and personal interests.

Bradley Gray is a forward thinking leader in the industry with a reputation second to none, giving his clientele peace of mind when it comes to being insured and understanding their policies for both business and personal.

Welcome to Brecknock! Brad will help you reach great heights.
